Dear Supporters, Volunteers, and Friends of Life's Key Ministry,

Please continue to pray for the situation regarding the loss of funding that we are about to endure starting at the end of this month. I have noticed that a few doors have opened since I started asking for prayer, and that has been encouraging. Please pray for more of that! Our website says that God is using us in a great way, and that is something I truly believe. It's hard not to as I see the consistent flow of inmate testimonials rolling in. So many of these men and women need the Lord, and I am so humbled that God is using us to reach them.

Please also keep Emmaus Correspondence School in prayer, as well as the other ministries affected by this change. Specifically the ministries that distribute to Connecticut, Illinois, Indiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Missouri, New Hampshire, and Vermont. Isn't it wonderful that we have a God who listens to our cries? What a comfort it is that we can go to Him in times of joy, trouble, gladness, heartache, and everything in between. Praise Him!

“This is the confidence which we have before Him, that, if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us.” - 1 John 5:14

“I received your correspondence back last night and felt extremely blessed. Thank you for your encouragement! My walk with Christ is long overdue. Somewhere along life's path my faith was attacked and I never got back on track. As I study God's word, I am learning that I have a lot of work to do in renewing my mind. My faith I feel is back, or should I say I know my faith is back in charge because God is working on me as I write this note. Pray for me that my journey continues to be pleasing to Him daily.” - Milton (Virginia)

“I truly hope this finds you in good health and happiness. The notes that you make on my answer sheets always give me joy, so I thought I would write you a note and tell you a little about myself. My life has been a mess. I was a musician playing bars and wild parties for years. I had a long history of drug and alcohol abuse. But God put me here to save my life and to get to know what He wants for me. I thank Him every day! Sometimes I feel so bad for the things that I've done and what He did for me. The pain and the suffering that He went through for me. It makes me want to cry! All that I can do now is seek His face and do His will. Sometimes I stumble and fall, but I get back up and keep trying to do better. Thank you for all your encouragement and inspiration. Your words brighten my day!” - Paul (Virginia)

“I just wanted to say thank you for the birthday greeting. It made my day. I have been going through a lot of things and focusing on things I shouldn't be focusing on. I'm trying to have a better relationship with the Father, but it's hard when your ways are of the world. I've been through a lot in my time on earth and it seems like I'm in a nightmare that will never end. I just had to be honest and truthful. Thank you and God bless. I'm just glad somebody cares. Psalm 91, He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty.” - Ramone (Ohio)
