

December 2020,

Dear Supporters, Volunteers, and Friends of Life's Key Ministry,

It was at this time last year that I included a couple of poems written by our students. I am continually amazed to see how the Lord is able to reach them and turn their lives to Him amidst their circumstances. Along with the course highlight this month, I wanted to again share a few more poems that were sent in.

A belated Happy Thanksgiving to you, and an early Merry Christmas! May the Lord bless you as we prepare to move forward into another year, perhaps the year of His return.

Course Highlight: MEN WHO MET THE KING

"Men Who Met the King" is sent along with "The Greatest Man Alive" as part of the second set of courses that our students receive. It was formerly named "Men Who Met the Master" with the change in name coming within the last year. We are currently mailing close to 200 of these per month, and one of the five course sponsorship slots designated for this course has been filled. It was written in 1973 by John Phillips. The course contains 6 chapters, each focusing on a man who interacted with Christ. Those 6 men are the unnamed thief who trusted Christ while hanging on the cross beside Him, the centurion who crucified Christ, Pontius Pilate, Herod Antipas, Judas, and Nicodemus. Each of these men had a response to Christ, and the course asks of the reader, "What is your response to Christ?"

"I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me." - Galatians 2:20

DEAR LIFE'S KEY,

*"One night as I sat in a cell, I wondered why I was living in hell.
My life was all a mess, and I felt the need to confess.
That's when I discovered Your word. It was something I never heard.
You gave me sheer wisdom into my heart.
I sat and wondered how I ever got by without You by my side.
I was weary and lonely without you, and now I'm refreshed and new.
Oh my dear Savior of mine, in my heart You will shine." - Kristi (Virginia)*

The Price

*"How many we have hurt for our own selfish ways.
Tears they shed on so many endless days.
Torn and ripped apart, love and broken hearts.
Wandering through darkness in satan's amusement park.
O the love that's lost with evil and despair.
Taken them for granted. Is life so unfair?
Brought to your knees, wishing only for death.
Instead, call His name with your last breath.
He has been waiting, for all is not lost.
The price has been paid, long ago, on the cross." - Kevin (Alabama)*

For HIS Glory,
