Dear Supporters, Volunteers, and Friends of Life's Key Ministry,

Prison correspondence ministry in America is entering a critical stage. While inmates could only rely on in-person, phone, and mailed communication in the past, there has been a steady increase of electronic tablets being afforded to inmates across the country. Although they are highly restricted, inmates can now communicate and receive reading material without any hard copies going in or out of the prison. This has prompted many of these tablet-implemented prisons to restrict any books or paper products from coming into their facilities because there is now a safer way for inmates to receive the same information without the threat of these items containing drugs or other substances.

The number of courses being sent into prisons is declining across all the prison ministries, but Emmaus Worldwide is working on creating the ability for inmates to receive courses electronically. While e-courses are already available to the general public, there are many hurdles to clear when it comes to having them accessible to inmates. Even when we get to that point, it will completely change how prison ministries operate.

Please keep this major item in prayer! For Life's Key as we are unable to mail into more and more prisons, and as we patiently wait for an electronic option. For Emmaus Worldwide as they continue to work with the software developers connected with prison electronic capability, and for the financial implications of an expensive undertaking coupled with prison coordinators ordering less courses. Despite so many unknowns, we are confident that the Lord will provide a way for those dedicated workers to continue His work!

“Commit to the Lord whatever you do, and He will establish your plans.” - Proverbs 16:3

DEAR LIFE'S KEY,

“Thank you very much for the Bible studies, “The Greatest Man Alive” and “Men Who Met the King”. Both of these studies have reignited my love for Jesus Christ as I am reminded that Jesus was the Son of man and the Son of God who existed before time began, and He is the Way, the Truth & the Life, and Jesus is the I AM! Jesus is King of Kings and Lord of Lords who is coming again to defeat all the enemies of God with one word from His mouth! Hallelujah!” - Neal (Ohio)

“I'm writing to you because I am searching for God's guidance and love in my life and I figured I should begin to know Him through His word.

I'm 34 years old on May 2nd. I'm a 3 time loser (3rd time behind bars). I have some mild mental health issues. I'm a gang member. I'm the oldest of 7 kids and the black sheep of the family. I'm all of these things, but I'm also a child of God.

I recently accepted Jesus as my Savior, Almighty and Lord, but I struggle with doing His will in my life. Thank you for taking the time to read this. May God bless us and this introduction of myself.” - Bobby (Florida)

For HIS Glory,
